EVERYDAY EVANGELISM

Six-Session Small Group Series Overview

About This Series

What if sharing your faith wasn't a program or a technique, but simply an overflow of a life with God?

Everyday Evangelism is a six-session small group series exploring what it looks like to share your faith naturally, relationally, and honestly, not as an obligation, but as an overflow of life with a living God who loves us.

Each session is built around a short video teaching and comes with a full discussion guide, scripture, practical application, and a group exercise. The sessions can be used in sequence as a six-week series or individually as standalone studies.

Together, these six sessions move a group from the foundation (the Gospel itself) through the practices that make everyday evangelism possible: love, expectation, neighboring, story, and prayer.

The Series Arc

These six sessions are designed to build on one another. Here's how they fit together:

1. Gospel Proclamation	2. Share What You Love	3. Naturally Supernatural	4. Neighboring	5. Telling Your Story	6. Learning to Intercede
------------------------	------------------------	---------------------------	----------------	-----------------------	--------------------------

Sessions 1-2: Foundation

Start with the Gospel itself (Session 1) and the challenge to share what you love (Session 2). These two sessions set the table for us. We have the story, and now we have to ask God for the love and courage to share it.

Sessions 3-4: Practice means R-I-S-K

Move into the everyday practices of kingdom expectation (Session 3) and neighboring (Session 4). These sessions push groups toward concrete, local action.

Sessions 5-6: Story & Prayer

Close with getting even more practical and personal: learning to tell your story (Session 5) and pray for others (Session 6). These sessions are the most practical and often the most transformative.

Facilitator Notes for the Series

- Each guide is designed for 60–90 minutes. The discussion questions are more than most groups will get through. Read them ahead of time and choose the ones most relevant to your group.
- Every session ends with a practical application step. Don't skip it. The goal isn't more knowledge: it's to take the next step. Name it before people leave.
- Consider opening each session (from Session 2 onward) by asking: “Did anyone take a step last week? What happened?” Storytelling builds momentum across the series.
- Sessions 4 (Neighbor Chart) and 6 (Testimony Workshop) include in-document exercises. Plan to give groups time to actually fill them out. The exercise matters as much as the discussion.
- These sessions work best when leaders go first. Model honesty, risk, and imperfection. A leader willing to say “I'm not good at this yet” gives everyone else permission to try.
- The series works as a standalone six-week study or as companion material to a Sunday sermon series on evangelism and mission.

A Prayer for the Series

God, make us people who can't help but share what we've found in you. Give us eyes to see what you're already doing in the people around us. Give us courage to pray, to knock on doors, to take risks, to open our mouths. Let the life we have with Jesus be so real, so present, so overflowing that it spills out naturally into every conversation, every neighborhood, every ordinary day.

Amen.
